Abstract

Already an impressive market with over $1B in revenue in 2008, InfoTrends' latest research indicates that the comprehensive Microsoft Office SharePoint Server (MOSS) market will surpass $5 billion in 2012. Nevertheless, the MOSS landscape can be confusing for partners, developers, and users alike. InfoTrends has just released a comprehensive study investigating how best to tap into the MOSS opportunity. This study examines customer behavior in relation to purchasing and engaging MOSS, what the market is currently offering, and improvements that could help maximize this emerging opportunity.
